

Excellent opportunities to learn

My name is Ingela Mahlberg and I am a Swede who joined the Management Trainee program in February 2008. What attracted me to the program was the chance to work with the exciting product of travel and to get a thorough understanding of this industry from inside a leading firm like TUI Travel. Travelling has always been very close to my heart, so switching to TUI Travel from the Financial Services industry in London was a natural step for me. During the program I have had an excellent opportunity to learn about the various businesses across
