What our people say:

'The international approach attracted me. My first assignment was with the Flight Purchasing department of TUI, Germany. Next I joined our French subsidiary, Nouvelles Frontières, in Paris. I was involved in several interesting tourism projects – the most exciting one was definitely the "Space travel" project. No joke!'

Dominik Mueller

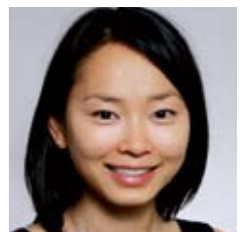

'My first assignment was working on projects with a Board member! A big start to a great programme. I really got an international, cross-discipline overview: Germany, UK, China, Spain – and in everything from Purchasing to Training. The contacts I developed within the TUI network have proven to be invaluable.'

Bee Yeon Ong

'My first assignment was in Hanover. I created and delivered an assessment centre for resort entertainers.

In my current assignment in the UK I am heavily involved in the internationalisation of the trainee programme.'
